Extending Your insurance policy

This policy cannot be extended.

When and how benefits are provided

The benefits for which You and Your Companion are insured under this policy are payable:

- a. when an insured situation occurs during the Period Of Insurance causing You or Your Companion to suffer loss; and
- b. Your or Your Companion's claim is accepted by Us.

Your duty of disclosure

Before You enter into this contract of insurance, You have a legal duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

The duty applies until (as applicable) We first enter into the policy with You, or We agree to a variation, extension or reinstatement with You.

Answering Our questions

In all cases, We ask You questions that are relevant to Our decision to insure You, and on what terms. So, please tell Us anything You know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in their answer.

It is important to understand You are answering Our questions in this way for Yourself and anyone else You want covered by the contract.

Variations, extensions and reinstatements

For variations, extensions and reinstatements You must tell Us anything You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, which may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms.

If You do not tell Us something

If You do not tell Us anything You are required to, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay if You or Your Companion makes a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

General Insurance Code of Practice

We are signatories to the General Insurance Code of Practice (Code), which was developed by the Insurance Council of Australia to further raise standards of practice and service across the insurance industry.

To obtain more information on the Code and the rights you may have under it please contact us or visit codeofpractice.com.au.

The amount You pay for this insurance

You can obtain a quote online at the same time You book an Event Ticket on the Event Provider's website.

The amount We charge You for this insurance policy is the total amount of the premium that We calculate to cover the risk and any relevant government charges (such as GST and stamp duty). These amounts add up to the total amount You must pay. Once the policy is issued Your total premium and any relevant government charges are shown on the Certificate of Insurance. If You wish to change Your policy in any way please contact us.

How various factors affect the Amount Payable

The premium amount We charge You is based on the cost of Your Event Ticket. The higher the Event Ticket price, the higher the Amount Payable.

How a claim settlement is calculated

When We pay a claim We consider a number of aspects in calculating the amount. These can include:

- the amount of the loss;
- the excess (if applicable);
- the maximum benefit limits and sub-limits; and
- the terms and conditions of the policy.

The following example illustrates how We will calculate the amount payable for a claim:

- You are unable to attend the Event due to Your Disabling Injury, Sickness or Disease.
- The policy has an excess of $0.

The amount payable following the claim would be calculated as follows:

- consider the value of the Event Ticket – $185.
- consider the maximum benefit limit for Event Ticket cancellation – $3,000.
- there is no excess. This results in a claim settlement of $185.
